

BIBLE GEMS MEMORY DRILL

Pathfinder Field Event

Objective: Promote the memorizing of precious gems from the Holy Bible

Team Participants: Six (6) Pathfinders

Materials: Bucket and Bible cards, all supplied by the Conference pathfinder Department
A sharp memory, provided by the pathfinders

Description of Field Event:

Six (6) pathfinders line up in single file at the start/finish line, while a line judge waits soberly at the action line guarding a bucket (or suitably similar container) in which are 12 cards on each of which is written a Bible memory reference (book, chapter, verse). At the starting signal, pathfinder #1 sprints to the action line, takes one of the cards from the bucket, looks at the test written on the card, hands the card to the judge, and recites by memory the passage that is referenced on the card. The judge listens attentively, and upon completion of the recitation, gives the approval signal ("correct", or that is OK). Pathfinder #1 then races back to the start/finish line, tags pathfinder #2, who races to the action line and takes his/her turn. The sequential action continues until all six (6) pathfinders have had a turn to recite a memory verse. A mercy (wimp) clause allows each pathfinder to have one exchange of card. If the pathfinder cannot recognize the memory verse passage on the first card drawn, he/she may drop it back into the bucket and exchange it for another one (but not to search for the "easy" one). If the pathfinder is not able to recite the memory verse from either the first card chosen, or the second one exchanged, he/she will forfeit the point, but still race back to the start/finish line to tag the next pathfinder so that the event continues at full velocity. The event is complete when the sixth pathfinder returns to the finish line. The team scores 1 point for each pathfinder who correctly recites the memory verse passage.

Scoring:	First Place (coveted blue ribbon)	6 points
	Second Place (red ribbon)	4-5 points
	Third Place (white ribbon)	1-3 points
